Ranking Our Legislators' Commitment to Workers' Rights and An Economy That Works for All

The 130th Maine Legislature occurred amidst a global pandemic and overlapping public health, economic and racial justice crises. As working people, we look for the Legislature to:

- Take action to protect all workers, our families and communities.
- Reflect our core values of solidarity and economic justice.
- Enact laws to build an economy that works for everyone, not just those at the top.

The Maine AFL-CIO is a statewide federation of more than 160 local labor unions in Maine. We represent more than 40,000 Maine workers and retirees delivering public services or working at paper mills, shipyards, hospitals, construction sites, utilities, and in many other industries. We represent these workers and their families at the Legislature, and we organize together year-round for workers' rights and economic justice.

This legislative scorecard seeks to capture the votes that were of the greatest importance to working people in the first session of the 130th Maine Legislature (2021). It provides information on those bills and lets you know how your legislators voted.

Our Legislative Committee and Executive Board carefully reviewed the bills that came before the State Legislature and selected which bills to work on and to score. We hope you find the scorecard useful and that you will use it to hold your state legislators accountable.

Dear Union Members and Friends,

This past year has been challenging as we struggled through a deadly pandemic and an economic crisis that shuttered businesses and put tens of thousands of Mainers out of work. At the same time, workers have become increasingly conscious of their value to society and are banding together to collectively demand fair wages, safer workplaces and a better life for themselves and their families.

This year, union members won several bills that will improve the lives of all Maine workers. We passed LD 1564, which will fix inequities in the state unemployment system and create a navigator system for labor and community groups to help workers file for unemployment and assist them in finding training programs and good paying jobs.

The new state budget (LD 221) fully funds revenue sharing to municipalities, which will help municipal workers negotiate better wages, working conditions and quality public services. It also finally provides 55 percent of the cost for education, which has been a decades long fight to achieve. The building trades passed two bills to require Project Labor Agreements on key construction projects for affordable housing (LD 1656) and renewable energy (LD 336).

The Legislature also passed measures to protect workers and the public from the privatization of public services (LD 875), strengthen safety training on publicly funded construction projects (LD 469), promote racial justice (LD 2, LD 1034), improve retirement security (LD 190, LD 1101) and strengthen democracy and voting rights (LD 148, 1126, 1575). The Legislature once again defeated an anti-union “right to work for less” bill (LD 97).

However, we are greatly dismayed that legislation to create stronger labor and equity standards on renewable energy projects (LD 1231) was defeated in the Maine Senate – by the narrowest of margins – after opposition to the bill from the Governor’s office. Governor Janet Mills also vetoed legislation to strengthen public sector bargaining rights (LD 677), encourage the state to procure American made products (LD 1411) and to allow workers to enforce our rights and fight against wage theft, harassment and discrimination (LD 1711).

This scorecard is designed to help you understand how your legislators voted on key labor issues. After reviewing it, please contact your legislators and let them know your thoughts on their voting record.

In solidarity,

Summary of Maine AFL-CIO Scored Bills

LD 677: Binding Arbitration

“An Act To Improve Public Sector Labor Relations by Amending the Laws Governing Arbitration under Certain Public Employees Labor Relations Laws”

Sponsored by President Troy Jackson (D-Aroostook)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

Senate Roll Call #456 - House Roll Call #378

Final Outcome: Defeated (Passed by the Legislature, Vetoed by the Governor)

Firefighters, dispatchers, bus drivers, teachers and state employees strongly supported LD 677, which would have leveled the playing field for public sector workers in contract negotiations. Currently, in the public sector, if workers and management can't reach a contract, there is a process of mediation, fact-finding and then arbitration. But arbitration is not binding on wages, insurance and retirement. This tilts the table against working people, undermines bargaining from the outset and makes it harder to improve staffing and services we all rely on. LD 677 would have fixed the power imbalance by making arbitration binding on all economic issues. Governor Janet Mills vetoed this priority bill.

LD 97: Right to Work for Less

“An Act To Ensure the Right To Work without Payment of Dues or Fees to a Labor Union”

Sponsored by Rep. Billy Bob Faulkingham (R-Winter Harbor)

Maine AFL-CIO Opposed

Senate Roll Call #140 - House Roll Call #34

Final Outcome: Defeated (Failed the House and Failed the Senate)

So called “right-to-work” laws are designed to weaken unions, drive down wages and allow workers to get most of the benefits of unions without paying any dues. Current Maine law allows private sector unions and employers to negotiate contracts where all workers who benefit from a collective bargaining agreement share in the costs of bargaining and representation. LD 97 would have made it illegal for employers and employees to agree that all workers who benefit from a collective bargaining agreement share in the costs.

LD 1231: Labor Standards on Renewable Energy Projects

“An Act Concerning Climate and Community Investment Projects”

Sponsored by Rep. Scott Cuddy (D-Winterport)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

Senate Roll Call #499 - House Roll Call #328

Final Outcome: Defeated (Passed the House, Failed the Senate)

Climate change poses serious threats – warming oceans, rising sea levels, extreme weather and much more. Unions in Maine have been developing a vision to address climate change and economic inequality together and create thousands of new union jobs. LD 1231 would have advanced labor and equity standards by requiring that renewable energy projects over two megawatts that receive over $50,000 in state assistance pay workers a prevailing wage, use registered apprenticeship programs, develop a diverse workforce, and encourage Project Labor Agreements. This bill was narrowly defeated in the Senate 17-17 after opposition from the Governor's office.

LD 1411: Buy American

“An Act To Establish the Maine Buy American and Build Maine Act”

Sponsored by President Troy Jackson (D-Aroostook)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

Senate Roll Call #321 - House Roll Call #249

Final Outcome: Defeated (Passed by the Legislature, Vetoed by the Governor)

The State of Maine spends millions of taxpayer dollars every year to buy things that we need, including materials for the construction of roads, buildings, bridges, and public works projects. One key way the state can create jobs and support the Maine and U.S. economy would be to legislate that these goods be Made in America whenever possible. LD 1411 would have done just that by creating a state procurement preference for Made in the USA goods and materials with reasonable exemptions when needed. Buy American legislation would help create and keep jobs in the U.S. and support our manufacturing sector. LD 1411 passed the House and Senate but was vetoed by the Governor.

LD 1564: Unemployment Insurance

“An Act To Amend the Laws Governing Unemployment Compensation”

Sponsored by Senator Eloise Vitelli (D-Sagadahoc)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

Senate Roll Call #332 - House Roll Call #269

Final Outcome: Enacted into law (Passed by the Legislature, Signed by the Governor)

At the height of the COVID-19 pandemic thousands of Mainers struggled to receive unemployment benefits due to understaffing, a flood of claims and an urgent need to update Maine's unemployment system. LD 1564 modernizes Maine's unemployment insurance program to ensure that Maine workers will receive timely and adequate unemployment benefits. The bill creates a Peer Workforce Navigator program to support laid off workers to access unemployment benefits and connect to good jobs and training programs, increases supplemental UI benefits for dependent children, improves eligibility for partial benefits and will improve the number of laid off workers who actually receive unemployment benefits.

Summary of Maine AFL-CIO Scored Bills

LD 1711: Enforcement of Labor Laws “An Act To Enhance Enforcement of Employment Laws”

Sponsored by President Troy Jackson (D-Aroostook)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

Senate Roll Call #453 - House Roll Call #385

Final Outcome: Defeated (Passed by the Legislature, Vetoed by the Governor)

Labor laws ensure that there are basic standards protecting workplace health and safety, wage and hour laws or preventing discrimination. We expect these laws to be followed and enforced. Unfortunately, violations of workplace rights are all too commonplace. LD 1711 would empower workers to better enforce labor laws by allowing workers to blow the whistle in court if their employers violate workplace laws.

LD 221: State Budget & Full Funding of Education & Revenue Sharing

Sponsored by Representative Teresa Pierce (D-Falmouth)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

Senate Roll Call #467 - House Roll Call #406

Final Outcome: Enacted into law (Passed by the Legislature, Signed by the Governor)

This supplemental budget fully funded K-12 public education at 55 percent and fully restored revenue sharing to towns and cities. This will improve education opportunities around the state, strengthen local investments in roads, public safety and other services, potentially lower property taxes and support good wages, benefits and staffing for teachers, firefighters and other municipal workers.

LD 875: Privatization Protection “An Act To Protect Taxpayers in the Privatization of Services & To Establish the State Procurement Review Committee”

Sponsored by Senator Joseph Baldacci (D-Penobscot)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

House Roll Call #320

Final Outcome: Enacted into law (Passed by the Legislature, Signed by the Governor)

We should be very careful when making decisions about whether to privatize public services and jobs. LD 875 puts in place a clear set of criteria to consider when privatization proposals are put forward, including impacts on wages, health insurance and the cost of providing services. After years of witnessing efforts to privatize state services, including the privatization of Casco Bay Bridge and efforts to privatize an expansion of Riverview, Maine finally has a process in law to protect the public and workers from privatization threats.

LD 1656: Affordable Housing with Labor Standards “An Act To Promote Energy-efficient Affordable Housing”

Sponsored by Representative Rebecca Millett (D-Cape Elizabeth)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

House Roll Call #203

Final Outcome: Passed the House and Senate, $20 Million funded in LD 1733

Working people face a housing squeeze. Maine is short more than 20,000 housing units, rents are skyrocketing and many workers can't afford to live where they work. This bill funds the construction of affordable, energy efficient housing with a skilled local construction workforce. The housing will be developed under a project labor agreement – a pre-hire, project wide agreement to ensure the work is high quality and delivered on time and under budget.

LD 469: OSHA 10 “An Act To Ensure Safety Across Maine’s Construction Industry”

Sponsored by Representative Michael Sylvester (D-Portland)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

Senate Roll Call #172 - House Roll Call #59

Final Outcome: Enacted into law

Working people deserve safe workplaces. Many jobs in the construction industry come with risks to a worker's health and safety. LD 469 helps ensure safer workplaces on publicly funded construction projects by requiring the OSHA-10 safety training for all craft workers on these projects.

LD 2: Racial Justice “An Act To Require the Inclusion of Racial Impact Statements in the Legislative Process”

Sponsored by Representative Rachel Talbot Ross (D-Portland)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

Senate Roll Call #59

Final Outcome: Enacted into law (Passed by the Legislature, Signed by the Governor)

In order to win big improvements for workers, the labor movement needs to tackle issues that divide us. Race has divided the working class throughout Maine's history. Racism harms union members of color and breaks working class solidarity. This bill set up a systemic process to review the racial impacts of legislation to help us address racial disparities and develop laws that benefit all workers.

LD 198: Labor Council Tax Fairness “An Act To Improve Maine’s Tax Laws by Providing a Property Tax Exemption for Central Labor Councils”

Sponsored by Senator Benjamin Chipman (D-Cumberland)

Maine AFL-CIO Supported

Senate Roll Call #71

Final Outcome: Enacted into law (Passed by the Legislature, Signed by the Governor)

For decades, Maine has exempted Chambers of Commerce from paying property taxes, while labor's equivalent, Central Labor Councils, were required to pay. In Maine, there are four Central Labor Councils, each of which plays an important local role in improving the lives of working families. Eastern Maine Labor Council (EMLC) is currently the only Central Labor Council in Maine that owns a building and pays property taxes. This legislation levels the playing field for labor councils and will help ensure a home for workers in the eastern Maine region.

The Real Faces of These Bills

The bills scored in this Scorecard have very real human impacts on people's lives, working conditions and their families. The human impact of legislation often gets lost in the policy debate. Below are some of the stories behind legislation from the 130th Legislature (2021).

Kilton Webb

LD 1231: Renewable Energy Labor Standards

Kilton Webb, Auburn, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Local 567

"To respond to the threat of climate change, we need to act fast. That means we need to train a generation of electricians, insulators, turbine and heat pump installers and lots more. I support LD 1231 because it ensures we are building a diverse, highly trained workforce, that we are paying workers good wages and benefits and that workers have a voice on the job. For bigger renewable projects that get public assistance, it seems very reasonable to apply prevailing wages, strong training requirements, project labor agreements and encourage equity and the development of a diverse workforce."

Garrett Stewart

LD 2: Racial Justice

Garrett Stewart, Portland, A. Philip Randolph Institute (APRI) and IAM Local S6

"Racism harms union members of color day in and day out. Throughout America's history race has been used to divide the working class. Legislation has often contributed to worsening racial disparities, like when Congress excluded two categories of non-white workers, "agricultural laborers" and "domestics," from labor protections in the National Labor Relations Act of 1935. Racial disparities are on display right here in Maine, where we recorded the worst racial disparity for COVID-19 in the country early in the pandemic. I support LD 2 because we need a systemic process to review legislation so we better understand how racial and ethnic groups are affected by proposed policies."

Suzy Young

LD 1564: Unemployment Insurance

Suzy Young, Winterport, farmer and Maine AFL-CIO Unemployment Assistance Group organizer

"I have witnessed first-hand the suffering of Mainers who have lost work through no fault of their own only to wait without income for several months while their benefits processed. Members of our group testified strongly in support of the provisions in LD 1564 because it will fix many of the problems in the state unemployment system and ensure that Maine workers receive timely benefits."

Caroline St. Pierre

LD 213 and LD 1245: Female Firefighter Equipment and Workers' Compensation Parity

Caroline St. Pierre, Saco, IAFF Local 740

"I have been a career firefighter for the City of Portland for 14 years. One of the biggest job hazards in the fire service is occupational cancer. Due to the amount of carcinogens we are exposed to, it is crucial we have proper fitting gear. Females have a different body type and it is dangerous for us to have gear that doesn't fit. Female firefighters are at a high risk for breast cancer and reproductive cancers. Before LD 213 passed, female reproductive cancers were not part of the presumptive cancer law. All firefighters, regardless of gender, are doing the same job. It is important both men and women firefighters get the proper health coverage needed to stay safe in their job."

Aaron Pelleschi

LD 1656: Affordable Housing with Labor Standards

Aaron Pelleschi, Belgrade, Ironworkers Local 7

"For the working class, a union job is the way to make sure we can both earn a living and have time with our families. At times, union trades people have had to travel far from home, missing that valuable family time. That will change due to Maine's investment of $20 million toward building energy efficient affordable housing with project labor agreements in place. This law will help solve Maine's housing shortage, tackle the climate crisis and secure good work close to home."

Noteworthy Actions

Roll call votes give one perspective on what happens in Augusta, but much more goes on behind the scenes that has a huge impact on the outcome. Here are some of the actions taken by legislators, not fully reflected in the scores, that impacted workers' rights.

Cuddy

Union members serving in office make a huge difference in advancing labor priorities. Rep. Scott Cuddy (D-Winterport), a member of IBEW 1253, worked tirelessly to attach labor and equity standards on renewable energy projects (LD 1231).

Roeder

Rep. Amy Roeder (D-Bangor), a member of AFT 4593, sponsored LD 225 to guarantee that earned vacation time be paid out when a worker ends their employment.

AFSCME Council 93 worked closely with Senate President Troy Jackson (D-Allagash) to enact LD 190, a bill that will benefit corrections officers who now will be able to retire with dignity at a reasonable age.

Jackson

Sen. Jackson (D-Aroostook), Senate Majority leader Eloise Vitelli (D-Sagadahoc) and Assistant Majority Leader Mattie Daughtry (D-Cumberland) did a tremendous job uniting their caucus around labor priorities.

Rep. Mike Sylvester (D-Portland) was a stalwart advocate of labor rights chairing the Labor and Housing committee. He sponsored LD 469 to improve safety in the construction industry and organized colleagues to support workers organizing at Maine Medical Center and Portland Museum of Art.

Daughtry

Sen. Craig Hickman (D-Kennebec) was laser focused on workers' rights and equity as Senate Chair of the Labor and Housing Committee. He facilitated a thoughtful, data driven, historically informed process around bills to expand labor rights to agricultural workers who were excluded from these laws for racist historical reasons.

Sylvester

Sen. Mark Lawrence (D-York) was a champion advancing strong labor standards including project labor agreements on renewable energy projects as chair of the Energy Committee.

Hickman

Speaker Ryan Fecteau (D-Biddeford), House Majority Leader Michelle Dunphy (D-Old Town) and Assistant Majority Leader Rachel Talbot Ross (D-Portland) ushered a number of pro-worker measures through the Maine House, including LD 677 to strengthen public sector collective bargaining rights.

Lawrence

Rep. Tiffany Roberts (D-South Berwick) built support in her committee for important licensing bills that will come back in 2022 (LD 1168, LD 1691) and helped defeat a bill that threatened safety for electricians (LD 126).

Fecteau

We were disappointed to see multiple Democratic Senators including Sen. Bill Diamond (D-Cumberland), Sen. Louie Luchini (D-Hancock), Sen. Susan Deschambault (D-York) and Sen. James Dill (D-Penobscot) vote against prevailing wages, good training programs and equity on renewable energy construction projects (LD 1231).

Roberts

Assistant House Majority Leader Rachel Talbot Ross (D-Portland) advanced racial and economic justice by funding the Permanent Commission on the Status of Racial, Indigenous and Maine Tribal Populations and passing fair chance in hiring legislation (LD 1167).

Talbot-Ross

Rep. Maggie O'Neil (D-Saco) worked hard on an innovative bill (LD 1549) to give loggers and other stakeholders a greater voice on forestry issues in the North Maine Woods.

We were disappointed in Representatives Michael Brennan (D-Portland), Steve Moriarty (D-Cumberland), Patricia Hymanson (D-York), Anne Perry (D-Calais) and Holly Stover (D-Boothbay) who joined all Republicans in voting against strengthening public sector collective bargaining rights (LD 677).

O'Neil

Rep. Thom Harnett (D-Gardiner) championed agricultural workers' rights by sponsoring bills to grant agricultural workers the right to organize (LD 151) and minimum wage and overtime protections (LD 1022).

Cyrway

Two Republicans, Rep. Timothy Theriault (R-China) and Sen. Scott Cyrway (R-Kennebec), stand out as the only members of their party to vote against a union busting so-called "right-to-work" bill (LD 97).

Sen. Rick Bennett (R-Oxford) and Sen. Paul Davis (R-Piscataquis) were the only Senate Republicans to record at least three votes in favor of labor on the scorecard.

Davis

Rep. Harnett (D-Gardiner), Rep. Brooks (D-Lewiston), Rep. Osher (D-Orono), Rep. Gramlich (D-Old Orchard Beach), Rep. Sylvester (D-Portland) and Speaker Fecteau (D-Biddeford) sponsored important tax fairness bills to tax the wealthy and reduce income inequality.

Gere

Machinists District 4 worked with tow truck drivers and Rep. Tracy Gere (D-Kennebunkport) to win safety improvements for drivers through passage of LD 1400.

Rep. Rebecca Millett (D-Cape Elizabeth) worked tirelessly to pass $20 million in funding for affordable, energy efficient housing that will be built with strong labor standards (LD 1656).

Millett

Rep. Nicole Grohoski (D-Ellsworth), Rep. Rebecca Millett (D-Cape Elizabeth) and Rep. Amy Roeder (D-Bangor) each sponsored legislation addressing health and safety for female firefighters (LD 1245, 213, 1440) by securing proper fitting gear and adding female reproductive cancers to the presumptive cancer law.

The Year in Pictures

Governor Janet Mills' Labor Record

This legislative session more than 20 bills – big and small – became law that were priorities for the working class and unions. We can't think of a time in recent history when we've won that many changes that will improve workers' lives. At the same time, we remain disappointed in actions that blocked bigger efforts to build workers' power, promote labor standards and tackle the deep inequality that haunts our economy.

Positive Support

Federal funds allowed for transformative investments in public services and working families. Governor Mills seized this opportunity by funding 55% of the cost of public education, fully funding revenue sharing, investing in registered apprenticeship, supporting the safety and health of state workers through improvements to state buildings and funding the Permanent Commission on the Status of Racial, Indigenous and Maine Tribal Populations.

The Building Trades won Project Labor Agreements in law on two significant projects, a major victory for Maine labor. Governor Mills signed LD 1564, modernizing Maine's unemployment insurance program. Laws were enacted to improve workers' retirement security (LD 190, 1101, 1644), to strengthen collective bargaining (LD 52, 824), to protect workers and communities from privatization (LD 875), to improve safety training on construction projects (LD 469), to raise standards on apprenticeships (LD 648) and to support Central Labor Councils (LD 198).

Disappointments

The session included four disappointing vetoes by Governor Mills. For the second session in a row, she vetoed a bill (LD 677) that would have strengthened public sector collective bargaining rights by making arbitration binding on wages, insurance and retirement. We were thrilled that the Legislature passed legislation (LD 1711) to strengthen enforcement of workplace laws and help workers combat wage theft, overtime violations, sexual harassment and misclassification. Unfortunately, this bill was vetoed. Governor Mills also vetoed Buy American legislation (LD 1411) and a bill that would give loggers more of a voice in the North Maine Woods (LD 1549).

The Governor's office also worked behind the scenes to defeat LD 1231, a key labor priority that would have attached labor and equity standards to renewable energy projects in an effort to create good quality jobs as we tackle climate change.

The Path Forward

Twenty pieces of pro-labor legislation becoming law is a significant achievement. These bills will improve the lives of working people and strengthen our communities. At the same time, we don't see the Governor demonstrating the same enthusiasm as legislative champions when it comes to building workers' power and tackling deep inequality, as is evidenced by her vetoes, bills that became law without her signature and testimony from the executive branch on a number of issues. There is a willingness to fund key measures, but less of a commitment to challenge the deep power imbalance between workers and corporations in our economy.

Our task remains clear: organize more deeply in our workplaces; build stronger, high participation unions; articulate a vision that inspires the working class; win our rights by exercising our rights; and continue to fight for workers' fundamental right to justice and dignity at work and beyond. If we do that work, the politics will follow.

Worker Candidate Training

January 29th & 30th, 2022 in Augusta!

In order to protect and advance the best interests of the working class, more working people and union members should serve in elected office. The best way to have a voice in Augusta, Washington D.C., or in our local communities is to have union members step up and run and serve. We hold our Worker Candidate Training every two years to train union members and allies on how to run and win elected office.

If you are planning to run for office, if you are considering it someday and want to learn more, or if you want to volunteer to help elect fellow union members, this two-day training is for you. You will learn the nuts and bolts of campaigning – writing your campaign plan, how to talk to voters, developing your message, recruiting volunteers, clean elections and fundraising, and more.

Contact Adam at adam@maineafclcio.org or call 207-991-7000 to learn more and to register for the training!

Now that you know the score, take action!

Contact your legislators. It is important that elected officials continue to hear from you. Please thank your legislators if they voted with workers. If they voted against workers' rights, let them know you are disappointed and expect better from them.

WORKERS ARE ORGANIZING!

Mary Kate O'Sullivan and Nancy Begert, RNs at Maine Medical Center in Portland, after proudly casting their ballots for their union.

During this pandemic, working people have made enormous sacrifices to keep the economy afloat and provide valuable services to our communities. Frontline workers have put their physical and emotional well-being at risk as they care for the sick, feed us, look after our children, take care of the elderly, respond to emergencies and deliver necessities.

COVID-19 has laid bare the sharp divisions and gross inequalities between the working class and the wealthy. But this crisis has also made workers more conscious of their value and aware that society would grind to a halt without us. That's why thousands of workers have been organizing and fighting for safer workplaces, hazard pay, paid leave and more.

Last spring, 2,000 nurses at Maine Medical Center celebrated a historic union election victory with the Maine State Nurses' Association/NNU, marking the largest successful union organizing effort in Maine in several decades. Other Maine workers at Portland Museum of Art (UAW 2110), Biddeford Saco Old Orchard Beach Transit (ATU 714), Waterville KVCAP (IAM S89), Kittery Water District (IBEW 1837), Planned Parenthood and the ACLU of Maine (MSEA SEIU 1989) have also successfully organized unions.

A combination of the pandemic and tight labor markets have given workers more bargaining power and we are feeling emboldened to take action. Maine restaurant workers, lifeguards, retail workers and others have carried out wildcat actions and walkouts to demand that their employers improve wages, staffing and working conditions. Others are in the process of forming unions so they have these demands guaranteed in a union contract.

We are in one of those moments where the opportunities for mass organization are opening, but it's up to us to seize the day and make it happen!

BUILD BACK BETTER WITH UNIONS: SUPPORT THE PRO ACT

Congress is considering a bill that would reverse many harmful anti-labor laws and dramatically improve the climate for labor organizing and collective bargaining in the US. The Protecting the Right to Organize Act (PRO ACT) is the strongest and most comprehensive pro-labor legislation since President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the National Labor Relations Act in 1935.

Unfortunately, over the past 70 years, workers' organizing rights been severely weakened by destructive anti-worker laws like the Taft-Hartley Act of 1947, bad court decisions and a lucrative union busting consultant industry.

These days employers routinely intimidate workers who organize with little consequence. In the past two years, there has been a wave of union organizing as workers have begun to stand up for better wages and working conditions. But it shouldn't be this hard to form a union. The PRO Act would crack down on union busters and make it illegal for employers to carry out the kind of anti-unions campaigns that recently occurred at Maine Medical Center and Portland Museum of Art.

It would also ban lockouts and the permanent replacement of striking workers as happened during the strike at the Rumford paper mill in 1986 and the Jay paper mill in 1987. In addition, it would require employers to bargain in good faith, guarantee a first contract and outlaw anti-union right-to-work for less laws that seek to weaken unions.

If you would like to join the movement to pass the PRO Act or have one of our organizers give a presentation about this historic legislation to your union, please email sarah@maineafcio.org.
